Switch Services for Checking Accounts

Switching service providers, especially for something as ingrained in your daily life as a checking account, can seem like a hassle. We want to make opening a new checking account and closing your old one as simple and easy for you as possible.

We'll help you

- Open your new account
- Switch direct deposits and automatic payments to your new account
- Close your old account
- Learn the features and benefits of your new account

All you need to get started

- Provide information on any accounts and automatic payments tied to your old checking account
- Provide authorizations to other financial institutions and companies where your automatic payments are set up
- Determine what accounts you want to transfer, including:

- Checking

- Debit Card

- Safe Deposit Box

- Mobile Banking

- Credit Card

- Savings & Money Market

- Certificate of Deposit - IRA

Closing your accounts

Before closing your account(s), review the list below to make sure the following have been completed:

- All checks have cleared your old account and your old checks have been destroyed
- All debit card/ATM transactions have cleared and your cards have been destroyed
- All automatic payments have been changed to your new account (use the checklist provided to help you identify what to change)
- Confirm all direct deposits have been changed to your new account
